

Hair & Make-Up Rehearsal Tips!

The hair and make-up rehearsal with Taura gives you the bride an opportunity to meet Taura your Artist and have her discuss and assess your preferences so that she can create the hair and make-up look that will reflect your personal style as a bride. Taura will document everything that is discussed at the rehearsal and take photos to create a personal folder for your detailed preferences for your wedding day. Taura will then review with you on your wedding day all the details and any important information about the services which was documented during your hair and make-up rehearsal.

- Bring samples pictures of bridal hair styles and make-up you may like.
- Bring a picture of your wedding dress.
- Bring your veil or headpiece and anything you will be putting in your hair.
